

Holly R. Hanks

Associate

Holly's practice focuses on intellectual property, including transactional and litigation matters. Holly has experience with a latitude of trademark matters, from prosecution to enforcement and litigation. She also assists in managing international trademark portfolios and counseling on trademark prosecution and enforcement abroad. She has successfully enforced clients' trademarks against domain name infringement.

Additionally, Holly has helped clients with advertising-related issues and has experience with disputes in the National Advertising Division.

Holly is also licensed to practice law in Tennessee, where she practiced before joining Hanson Bridgett, and gained experience in state and federal business litigation, as well as in arbitration.
