

Kamran Khakbaz

Associate

Kamran Khakbaz represents clients in litigation and insurance recovery matters.

Prior to joining Hanson Bridgett, Kamran was a litigation associate at a firm where he litigated business, employment, and real estate matters. He has experience litigating breach of contract, unfair competition law, fraud, CEQA, and professional liability disputes. He has also helped resolve disputes in arbitration.

As a law student, Kamran served as judicial extern to the Honorable Philip Gutierrez of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, in addition to clerking in the Cyber Crimes Division of the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office.

He is an active member of his community, and has volunteered for Bet Tzedek Legal Services, the Chicago Council on Global Affairs, and the National Iranian American Council.
