

Liza C. Bunker

Senior Counsel

Liza specializes in estate planning, probate and trust administration services to individuals and families. She focuses on developing and implementing estate planning strategies ranging from “first level” planning to advanced planning techniques. Her practice includes preparing revocable trusts, intentionally defective grantor trusts, gift trusts, life insurance trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, charitable trusts and wills. She also advises clients regarding the formation and operation of family held partnerships and limited liability companies in the context of estate planning.
