

Maureen Chang

Associate

Maureen Chang is an associate in Hanson Bridgett's Estate Planning & Administration Practice Group. Her expertise includes drafting revocable trusts, special needs trusts, asset protection trusts, wills, and incapacity documents. Maureen has represented executors for probate administration and trustees in contests trust administrations and has provided extensive research and analysis of at-death transfer consequences for international estates.

Clients seek to work with Maureen not only for her areas of expertise mentioned above, but because her unique background in psychology makes her trustworthy, reliable, and personable. Maureen's mastery of tax law gives her practice area the depth and insight required to represent her clients and their needs skillfully.
