

Neema S. Ghiasi

Associate

Neema focuses his practice on litigation and dispute resolution. His litigation experience includes a broad range of industries and subject areas, including general commercial and business, construction, and intellectual property. He has experience in both state and federal courts, including preparation of pleadings, written discovery, depositions, mediation, settlement negotiations, and trial preparation.

Prior to joining Hanson Bridgett, he served as an associate for a commercial litigation firm where he represented business clients in matters ranging from issues of corporate governance, breach of contract, misappropriation of trade secrets, unfair competition, and other business tort theories of liability. Previously, Neema served as legal counsel for a Bay Area business intelligence startup providing legal support to the operations, sales, product, and marketing divisions.
