

Thomas Rivera

Associate

Prior to joining Hanson Bridgett, Tom served as a legislative research assistant for the United States Senate, a legislative affairs specialist for NASA, as a law clerk for the California Department of Justice, and a legal fellow for the Tenants' Rights practice at Centro Legal de la Raza.

Time and time again, throughout the experiences listed above, he has proven that his level of analysis, organization, and critical thinking make him an integral part of the firm's Litigation Practice Group.
