

Labor and Employment Update for 2013

Everything you need to know about developments in labor and employment law

We are here to help make sense of new laws affecting your organization and give you the tools you need to succeed. Everything you need to know about the latest employment legislation, cases impacting you and your employees in 2013, the status of the meal and rest break litigation, and the latest legal news on social media and your employees can be found below.

Click to Download Related Materials:

- 1. Employment Law Update \(new workplace laws and regulations\)
- 2. Wage/Hour Issues \(new laws, policy and regulations\)
- 3. Litigation Update \(review of significant employment cases\)
- 4. Employee Benefits Update
- 5. Practical Advice for Classifying Employees
- 6. Accommodating Disabilities: How to Avoid Discrimination/Retaliation Claims
- 7. Supplemental Employment Update for 2013
- 8. FEHC Amended Disability Regulations
- 9. FEHC Pregnancy Regulations
- 10. The New National Labor Relations Board
- 11. NLRB Advice Memorandum
- 12. Members of The NLRB Since 1935
- 13. Even if It Enrages Your Boss, Social Net Speech Is Protected

- 14. Unions' Ranks Keep Shrinking
- 15. Updated Guidance Regarding Salary Notices
- 16. Employers Finally Get Practical Advice on Meal Periods and Rest Breaks
- 17. Employer's Supplemental Tax Guide
- 18. Employment Determination Guide

For more information, please contact:

Alfonso Estrada, Partner
213-395-7633
AEstrada@hansonbridgett.com