Riane Briones' practice focuses on litigating trust and estate matters involving families. Riane has growing experience in representing clients navigating contested conservatorships and trust and estate contests. As an adept communicator, Riane's candor and empathy allow for her to help clients through complex issues and complicated dynamics.

Prior to joining the firm, Riane represented clients in general litigation matters where she honed her skills in comprehensive law and motion practice and all stages of discovery. As a litigator, Riane has experience in trial and trial preparation, but she also prioritizes developing and employing case strategies that best fit her clients' needs.
